

I feel strongly that the FCC needs to strengthen ownership rules. Companies like Sinclair Broadcasting are taking advantage of their size and airing programs that suit their needs NOT the publics.

Their decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This is definitely NOT in the public's interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Please take this in to account. HELP!
Thank you.
